Greenwich House Delegation To Hold Town Meeting for Constituents March 5th

State Representatives Claudia “Dolly” Powers, R- 151st District, Livvy R. Floren, R-149th District, and Lile R. Gibbons, R-150th District, will hold a Town Meeting for Constituents March 5th to give residents the opportunity to voice their opinions and ask question about issues and legislation affecting Greenwich.

The Town Meeting for Constituents is scheduled for Saturday, March 5th from 8:30 to 10 a.m. at the Greenwich Town Hall Meeting Room.

The event is open to the public and citizens are encouraged to attend, the legislators said.

Matters coming before the Connecticut General Assembly that could affect Greenwich and other towns in lower Fairfield County include initiatives to resolve gridlock on I-95, I-84 and other limited access highways; efforts to improve and upgrade commuter rail services; open space; and state education funding levels for local school districts, the legislators said.
